A Pentecost Message

“Peace be with you.” Jesus greets the gathered disciples twice with these words in John 20:19, 21 and later in verse 26, he extends the same greeting to Thomas. In between, he breathes the Holy Spirit onto them with the instruction that they too are being sent, just as he was sent by the Father.

We enter into the season of Pentecost on Sunday, June 4, a season that will take us up to Advent. In this time we too, filled with the Holy Spirit, are called on to go and minister to others. We are called to go and share God’s love with our neighbor. This is a time of sending, for the disciples and for Pastors Mike and Sherri. They have been blessed and sent by this congregation to go and we say, “Peace be with you.” As Jesus greets the disciples with “Peace be with you,” I enter into your midst and I often use Jesus’ greeting as a blessing as we go out. Perhaps we can use Jesus’ greeting in both ways; a coming and a going.

As I come to be with you during this sabbatical I look forward to our time together as we worship, pray, serve, and care for one another and the greater Schoharie community. We have many opportunities to serve and love as you will notice in this newsletter.

So you may know my family better, my husband James (Jim) and I live in the Town of Glen just off 30A as you’re heading north. We have two sons, James and Daniel. James is a 2015 graduate of Alfred State, where he received his Associates Degree in Diesel and Heavy Machines. He works for Daime Logistics in Fultonville. Dan is a student at SUNY Oneonta, is majoring in Geography/Geology, and is on the Cross Country and Indoor and Outdoor Track teams. He will be working on staff at Camp Fowler this summer, so if you are at camp, say hi to Dan. I too will be at Fowler July 2-7.

My husband is retiring this month from the Greater Johnstown School District and is looking forward to it, with no immediate retirement plan, although Dan does have him out hiking a few high peaks in the Adirondacks. He is an assistant coach for Fonda-Fultonville Schools in Cross Country and Outdoor Track. I rejoice in being here and spending time serving with you.

Peace be with you,

Betsy Westman

Food Pantry Report

April 2017: In April, the Schoharie Community Food Pantry was visited a total of 80 times, providing food to over 220 individuals. We continue to be grateful for donations of food, and this month want to especially thank Junior Girl Scout Troop 2368 who collected food for the pantry. All donations are always gratefully accepted, including non-food items such as toilet paper, paper towels, shampoo, etc. Thank you on behalf of those who visit the pantry – they express their gratitude to the volunteers on a continual basis!

We are also blessed with many volunteers who give of their time to pick up food and weigh it, volunteer when the pantry is open, handle the finances and support the pantry in so many other ways. We held a recent in-service for the pantry day volunteers, going over the duties of those signing people in, as well as the duties of those helping people to shop. Many of our pantry day volunteers have been working at the pantry for many years. All of our volunteers are incredibly committed to helping others! As volunteer appreciation week draws to a close, let me say a sincere “Thank You” to all the volunteers who keep the pantry operating. You are truly a blessing!

May 2017: Earlier this month the US Postal Service collected food for local food pantries. All food collected by the Schoharie Post Office was donated to the Schoharie Community Food Pantry. A literal ton (2000 lbs.) of food was received by the food pantry. What a blessing! Needless to say, our shelves are very well stocked at this point, which puts us in good shape going into the summer months. Many thanks to the Post Office staff and all the people who donated food through this initiative.

We continue to serve 60 to 80 families per month, so the pantry will not stay full for very long. Some of the families served are quite large, so an enormous amount of food can leave the pantry on any given day. Additionally, there is always a need for non-food items, such as toilet paper, paper towels, shampoo, laundry detergent and similar items. The folks we serve constantly express their appreciation for the pantry and how it makes a difference in their lives. Thanks to all who donate of their money, food or other items, or their time to make this ministry happen. You are truly helping our community!

Sabbatical Plans

Christian Theological Seminary, as an agent of the Lilly Endowment, chooses only a small number of the congregational proposals they receive, and then fully funds those few proposals. The Schoharie Reformed Church is extremely fortunate to be recipients of the Sabbatical Grant. This year, we were the only recipients in the region! The Endowment believes wholeheartedly that healthy pastors make for healthy congregations and healthy communities. They invest in congregations, and invite congregations to work with their pastors in this special way. The overall theme of the grant is “what would make your heart sing?” And applicants are invited to propose a themed “trip of your life” with a rhythm of individual retreat, couples retreat, and family retreat. Most of the proposals include international travel. The congregation is also invited to dream about the time from the congregational perspective, and propose activities the congregation will undertake.

Creating the proposal was an effort of the consistory and a writing team, with the pastors, including Karen and Bill Olewnick, Dusty Putnam, Maryann Foland, Liza Toborg, Cindy Parks, Sue Herchenroder, Sue Smith, Jessie Griffin, Paul Schultz, and Buck Berdan. They shared ideas and developed the congregational plan; some also wrote portions of the proposal. Thank you all again for your work!

Our overall theme is “Reconnecting with ourselves, God, and Others.”

Pastoral Plan:

Mike intends to reconnect with self, God, and others through music and food; Sherri through creation and relationships. We both are seeking to be open to what God would have for us in this time and not put too many expectations on it, while at the same time we would like to exercise more, spend time reading and journaling, spend time playing music, and enjoying being together. We also would love to make some headway on projects that have long been put on hold, such as finishing cleaning out and up some of the flood mess in our barn, and clean out some piles that have accumulated in our house.

Please pray for us as we work at sabbath and establishing new rhythms in our lives for added spiritual and physical health and vitality during this special time.

Please pray for safety in travel, and health that we might fully enjoy each phase, as we continue to expectantly seek what God will show and teach us in it.

Our sabbatical begins slowly on May 29 as we spend the week slowing down, doing some house cleaning, and getting ready for all that is to come.

Individual retreats: Pastor Sherri – Alexandria Bay; Pastor Mike – The Guest House, Chester, Connecticut, a beautiful retreat center.

Family heritage trip to London, England, Conwy, Wales, and possibly other locations.

Pastors’ retreat at the ecumenical monastic Abbey on the isle of Iona, in Scotland. We both studied monasticism and have always dreamed of going to Iona in particular, as it is known for its music and ecumenical community. You can learn more about it at <https://iona.org.uk/island-centres/the-abbey/>.

Voyage to Africa: We intend to land in Nairobi and catch a connection to Lusaka, and then to Harare, Zimbabwe. We will be guests of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Zimbabwe. Church members will meet us as we get out of customs, and then we will take a bus trip across the country to Bulawayo. We will be staying with the family of the bishop for a week! He plans to take us into the countryside to visit some of the villages, a mission hospital and school. After the first week, the General Secretary, who has been making most of the plans for us, will travel with us as we slowly travel north. He intends for us to stay on one of the game reserves and go on a safari! We will end up in Victoria Falls, where we will stay for a few days, before returning to Harare. In making all of these plans, we have already been reconnecting with our Cross-Cultural mission training. Please pray for cultural understanding, for our health and safety, and for a wonderful time of relationship and community building! Please also pray for extra patience for Sam and Sophia, as we anticipate long church services and times when they will need to listen to adults for long periods. Pray for some friends for them, and their own safe, yet fun, learning and growing experience.

Congregational retreat: We will we will join the congregation in the retreat at Camp Fowler!

Pastors' time of reflection: Mike and Sherri will conclude ALL of their trips with one last couples' trip. They will be traveling to Kauai, Hawaii! This will be a slower and relaxing time of reflecting on all of their travels and spending some special time just the two of them.

September 24 we will be fully back!

Thank you for your prayers!

Congregational Plan:

While the pastors get to go on some pretty fabulous trips, the congregation is invited to also engage the work of "re-connecting" with self, God, and others. The planning team composed a great plan for the congregation, including inviting some of your favorite speakers. As a part of this reconnecting, the planning team has also asked members of the congregation to use their gifts to lead worship.

We are very privileged to have Betsy Westman as our Sabbatical Leave Intern Pastor. Many will remember Betsy from volunteering at Camp Fowler, or from when she preached for us when she was becoming a preaching elder. Betsy is a preaching elder. She also opted to continue her schooling and is just completing all of the requirements to be an ordained minister of Word and Sacrament!

Remember, there are still lots of things happening in the life of the Schoharie Reformed Church this summer, and we hope you will continue to pitch in, so they can each be a blessing and you can continue to experience all that God would have for you, as well.

Fellowship Hall Renovations

Ceiling and walls are painted (thanks to the SRC retired painters guild). Vinyl floor tile has been installed in the new rooms and pieced-in around the main room. Doors are being installed; and electric outlets, switches and lights are being installed. By the time you read this, the kitchen cabinets and countertops will have been ordered.

Cutting and gluing floor tile. The style and color match the existing tile.

Painting As mentioned above, once the doors are hung, the SRC retired painters guild will regroup to paint fire doors and stain/poly wood doors. Dave Toborg will contact you.

Thank You

Thank you from SALT: Dear Pastor Sherri & Pastor Mike, I want to thank you and the entire congregation for accommodating the NCCC. I can't find the words to express my gratitude to you and the church. I know that they weren't able to get to the painting project, so if there is anything that I can do to help, please let me know! Thank you again! – Jin
